In the Office

Jean works in an office five days in the week. When she works, she gets up very early in the morning, has a quick breakfast, and then walks to Finsbury Park station. From there she goes to King's Cross station by train. Her office is just near the underground station. She works as a typist and types letters and other things for Mr Smith. Jean likes her work and she likes the other people in her office.

At lunch time, Jean goes to a small restaurant near the office, and sometimes she also goes to the shops, either to buy something or only to look at the things in the shop-window. She likes pretty clothes very much.

At 5.30 p.m. Jean's office closes, and she goes home. She lives with her parents. Jean does not work on Saturday and Sunday. She usually stays at home on those days.
